

ADULT INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM FALL AUG 23, 2021

NATIONAL TENNIS RATING PROGRAM (NTRP)

The Adult Instructional Pathway includes six different class levels. The curriculum is designed to help students move to next level up. The following descriptions will help the student choose the correct class level.

2.0 (beginner)

This player is relatively new to the game. Stroke fundamentals, court positioning, and basic rules and scoring are learned.

2.5 (advanced beginner)

This student is learning to keep the ball in play but needs to improve court positioning and consistency.

3.0 (low intermediate)

This student can play singles and doubles, but needs to improve net play and basic tactics.

3.5 (intermediate)

This player has dependable strokes, but lacks depth and variety. This player lacks consistency when trying for power.

4.0 (advanced intermediate)

This player is developing the use of lobs, overheads, approach shots and volleys, and is seldom out of position in singles or doubles.

4.5+ (advanced)

This player has begun to hit with power, spin, depth and control. The serve can be a weapon, and he/she can move into net position with success in singles and doubles.
